The Humble
A D D R E S S

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal
 In Parliament Assembled.

Die Lunæ 11 Januarii, 1702.

E Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, do return Your Majesty our most humble Thanks, for Communicating the several Letters and Memorials of the States General to this House: And having taken Notice how much time has been already spent in this Negotiation, and with what Repeated and Pressing Instances the States General have Represented the Apprehensions they are under from the Extraordinary and Forward Preparations of the French; do take Leave humbly to Advise Your Majesty, That without any farther loss of time, You will be Pleased to Agree to the Proposals made to Your Majesty by the said States General, for such an Augmentation of Forces as may Disappoint the great and early Preparations of France, and effectually Support and Defend the Common Cause. And we do farther humbly Acquaint Your Majesty, That it is the Opinion of this House, That Your Majesties Furnishing Your Quota of the Augmentation of Troops in the Low Countries will be Ineffectual, unless all Correspondence with France and Spain, by Letters or otherwise, be totally Prohibited by the States General, and all other Your Majesties Allies.

Her Majesties most Gracious Answer to the Address.

My LORDS,

NO time shall be lost in relation to the Augmentation of Troops, and the Prohibition of the Commerce by Letters, recommended in this Address.

F I N I S.
